
Press Release 28/04/2009

Ventura have recently developed a Bike-pack system for the new XR1200. Shown below is a full Touring-kit including the Aero-spada 51 litre pack available early May for $459.00 RRP.

Full touring kits with 35 litre Suzuka pack start from $389.00 and Sports-rack kits from $279.00.

Sports kit includes L brackets, mounting hardware and a low rack, the optional 10 litre sports pack is available for an additional $90.00 RRP and not to forget that Pillion grab handles for all models are only $40.00 RRP.

Our friends at Ventura have been very busy, also coming soon will be a Bike-pack system for the 2009 XJ6 Diversion shown below, will be available with all the same features and pricing as the XR1200 kit.
